

NAME _____

Choose one print and one poem in the exhibit.

The Print: Title: _____ Artist: _____

Describe it: What do you see?

- What colors, shapes, and lines do you notice?
- List 4 words you would use to describe the print: 1. _____ 2. _____
3. _____ 4. _____

Interpret it: What do you think it's about?

- What "story" or meaning does the artwork convey to you? Start with "Once upon a time there was..." tell your version of the "story" you see, and include something about the White Mountains:

The Poem: Title: _____ Poet: _____

Read the poem to yourself.

Describe it: What do you notice?

- What do you notice about how the poem is organized? Are there stanzas? Rhyming or repetition, capitalization or punctuation?
- Make a list of 4 key words that jump out at you as important in the poem 1. _____
2. _____ 3. _____ 4. _____

Interpret it: What do you think it's about?

- What kind of story does this poem tell? Is it about a person or a place or a feeling?
- What do you like about this poem?
- In the box at the right, make a quick mini sketch of something about the White Mountains region the poem makes you think of (trees, rocks, river, trail, sunrise, etc).

