What to X-pect

We understand that the housing selection process can be confusing, especially your first time, so we host this annual event to provide information and answer questions in a fun and informal way.

There will be a crowd.

Be patient and go at your own pace.

Visit the info tables in any order you choose, but you must visit all tables to be entered for the grand prizes

Take as long as you want to to ask questions and learn about the process

What to X-pect
